

PHILIPPINE VETERAN ARRIVES TO INSTALL DETECTIVES' BUREAU

John V. Griffin, veteran of five years of campaigning in the Philippines, both as a private in L. company of the third battalion of engineers and as an officer of the Philippine constabulary, is opening an office today at 24 East Washington street which will be known as the Merchants' Protective Detective Bureau.

This bureau, which will eventually become the central office of a chain to extend throughout the state, is designed "to catch inside jobs before the crimes are committed," according to Griffin. Educated and refined operatives, both men and women, will be employed. All will be bonded and their identity will be unknown to any person but the chief of the bureau and the merchants who employ them.

Mr. Griffin is a man of wide experience in the handling of detective work. Going first to the Philippines in 1914 as an enlisted man in the engineer corps of the United States army, he spent the first year of his stay in the islands on the island fortress of Corregidor. In 1915 he entered the famous Philippine constabulary as a third lieutenant, rising to the rank of first lieutenant before he left the service in April, 1917.

Serbia Demands Women Doctors

Officials of the Serbian government are asking the American government for medical aid for their country—especially for women physicians.

The Mohammedan men, whose women folk lead a very secluded life, prefer that they be attended by women doctors—equipped with modern medical science but free of masculine charms. The American Women's hospitals in Serbia for two years, many of them having been decorated for bravery in war service. The Serbian Relief committee has just dispatched a unit of four women doctors and a dentist to Serbia, all flanked by the American Women's hospitals and working under their direction.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Harry Bryant, captain of the high school football team, a senior at that institution and one of the most popular young men of the school, has acquired a dignity. He is the correspondent for the Arizona Republican at Phoenix Union High school.

The football men met at the high school last night at 8 o'clock for the first meeting of its kind this year. Inside football was discussed and signals given out.

Coaches Geary and Venne, old time rivals, told how they used to beat each other, their tales of friendly rivalry lending inspiration to the new recruits who attended the meeting.

After an arduous search a place was secured for the band to practice at Fourth and Van Buren streets. With 40 musicians under the able leadership of Venne, the band promises to be one of the best the school has ever had.

The work of fifty men who turned out for football practice indicated P. H. S. is going to have an excellent chance to capture the championship again this season.

If present arrangements are carried through, the high school football team may get a post season game with the champions of California.

Things are quiet around the campus these days. No more social gatherings in the care around by the third building—no more tea parties around the Waldorf Astoria! Why? Ask the M. P.

The first game, that with the alumni, is set for October 11. The alumni are out of luck this time because P. H. S. is due for a win from them.

This makes about the 'teenth year Professor Michaels has been out to watch the fellows practice. He says the team is just a little lighter this year, but far faster than any team of previous years.

High school students watch the Republican for an interesting little contest to take place soon. Particulars will be given later.

The art department is growing great this year. From the size of the classes, the annual and the Coyote Journal won't lack for art work. Mrs. Perkins has been at the head of this department for several years, and the success of the school's papers are largely due to her efforts.

DON'T WORRY, TIME WILL NOT CHANGE FOR TWELVE DAYS

According to the provisions of the daylight saving law, either Old Sol will have to be sidetracked for an hour on the morning of October 13 or the hands of every time-piece in these United States must be turned back 60 minutes. The law makers who framed the bill haven't made any statements regarding which method they will sanction.

The early risers are getting anxious. They kept the telephones in the Arizona Republican office busy last night asking just when they were to get that extra hour of sleep. The office wasn't sure. They never sleep anyway. But to accommodate the public the office force tapped the official source and ascertained the exact date the time was to be changed.

The clocks will be turned back midnight, October 12.

THOUGHTFUL THIEVES EXPECT HARD WINTER

Burglars who entered the home of Mrs. Welsh, 340 West Portland avenue Monday night evidently anticipate a severe winter. They helped themselves to a generous supply of heavy blankets, sheets, and comforts, totally ignoring the silverware and jewelry in the home at the time.

Mrs. Welsh estimated her loss at about $75. The burglars secured entrance to the home by cutting the screen door and inserting a pass key in the second door.

War profiteering has brought a resumption of the practice of buying women in India and fancy prices are paid by the new rich for good looking girls.

Central India has an electric tree which shocks one who touches its leaves. A similar tree in Brazil gives light enough to read by.

PHOENIX LEAGUE FOR P. OF A. I. NAME OFFICERS

Permanent organization of the Phoenix section of the League for the Preservation of American Independence was effected last night at a meeting held in the Blue Room of the Hotel Adams. Fritz Holmquist was elected president of the body, S. J. Ross secretary, and Luke W. Henderson, treasurer.

In addition to these officers, who are ex-officio members of the board of directors, the following were elected to the board, which when complete will consist of 22 members:

M. J. McCauley, R. Holt, John Montgomery, E. W. Elias, H. A. Daggs, E. J. Harrington, W. H. Taylor, Jr., V. A. Thompson, E. Sloan, Henry L. Eads, J. E. Sellers and C. W. Barnett. Vice presidents elected were John Hurley, N. McCole, Mrs. Lucy Ellis, E. J. Lynch, and Miss Bernice W. Eggleston. These also are members of the directorate.

Henry L. Eads was elected chairman of the enrollment of members, and E. J. Harrington was elected chairman of the finance committee.

The total membership of the Phoenix section of the league has already passed the 200 mark and is being increased by signatures to pledges being circulated throughout the city.

In addition to completing the arrangements for the reception of Senator Reed here October 9, the effect of last night's meeting, a non-partisan affair, was to consolidate sentiment on the League of Nations in this city. An effort will be made to bring Senator Hiram Johnson of California to Phoenix some time in the near future. Other prominent speakers will also be brought here, if possible.

Following is the pledge agreed to by members of the League for the Preservation of American Independence, of which Col. Henry Watterson is president.

SWITZER PROUD OF GOODS OBTAINED AT COAST STYLE SHOWS

"The stores of Phoenix are just as up-to-date as those of the coast and prices here are from 10 to 20 per cent cheaper than there," said Walter Switzer, proprietor of Switzer's Style shop last night in speaking of conditions he found on a visit to the Los Angeles style shows.

Mr. Switzer probably had an opportunity which every lover of the beautiful in Phoenix yearned. He received card invitations to the largest fashion shows in Los Angeles. He made a special trip to Los Angeles to be present at the showing in the Hotel Alexandria and at the Unique Cloak and Suit house, the most exclusive store on the coast.

At the Unique he had the privilege of seeing a large number of the latest creations of Harry Collins of New York, the most exclusive designer in the east. He could not attend, but sent Mrs. Collins to the coast with six models and seven trunks filled with dainty wearing apparel.

At the Hotel Alexandria show, Pauline Fredericks, Blanche Sweet, Charles Charles and numerous other stars of the screen were present to purchase. Mrs. Chaplin invested heavily. Miss Sweet bought clothes to the amount of $4,500 and Miss Fredericks purchased one gown valued at $1,500.

It was Mr. Switzer's privilege to be able to obtain a large number of the gowns shown. He has brought them to Phoenix and starting tomorrow morning he will have a special showing of the gowns he secured at the Alexandria show.

Mr. Switzer stated last night that he had discovered that it is the woman from the coast who is the largest buyer in Phoenix. She has discovered that prices are far cheaper here and has consequently delayed her purchase until she has reached home.

LAND PRICES WENT HIGH IN BIG HURRY

Paying $6,000 for property which he offered $2,500 for a fortnight ago, E. E. England yesterday purchased 40 acres in Glendale belonging to the estate of Lelah May White.

On September 17, England made the $2,500 bid and the property was sold by the administrator of the estate, P. T. Patterson. Judge Lyman refused to confirm the sale and yesterday received bids in open court.

Several were filed Monday, England being among the bidders offering $4,000. When Judge Lyman received the bids yesterday, England offered a third bid of $6,000 and the land was sold to him.

The appraisers of the estate valued the land at $3,300 when it was appraised in April.

It is estimated that a flock of 100 hens will produce 137 pounds of chalk annually in the shells of their eggs. Eskimos of Labrador learned of the armistice four months after it was signed and celebrated with bonfires on the ice.
